

ADMISSION CRITERIA

DOUBLE DEGREE MASTER PROGRAMME IN DEVELOPMENT ECONOMICS

- Candidates hold a bachelor's degree with 180 ECTS, at least 150 ECTS at application, or equivalent if non-European.
- Among the 180 ECTS, 60 ECTS (or equivalent) at least must have been obtained in economics and 30 ECTS in development economics, Economic theory, agricultural economics.
- Applicants with a French bachelor's degree will prove a minimum average grade of 13/20 in the French grading system.
- Other applicants will prove the equivalent or the equivalent of the American GPA 2.7/4 over their undergraduate studies.
- Language skills in English equivalent to level C1 according to the Common European Framework of Reference for languages. Proof of English proficiency can be provided by:
 - Degree certificate of study programme with English as medium of instruction
 - TOEFL ibt minimum score 95
 - Paper TOEFL minimum score 577
 - Cambridge scale « first » minimum grade: A/ Cambridge English Scale minimum 173
 - TOEIC minimum score 945
 - IELTS minimum score 7